

Tell your company story while recruiting top talent

The Gazette Company Spotlight

Unlock the power of storytelling and showcase what makes your company an exceptional place to work. The Gazette's Company Spotlight offers a unique platform to highlight your company culture while sharing information about positions available.

Dates: April 20-25

In this week-long virtual spotlight, you'll gain notoriety for your workplace culture:

1. Native Article Publication: A dedicated article about your company on thegazette.com, detailing your vibrant company culture and what sets you apart, shared directly to our popular Careers Job Tips blog.
2. Digital Advertising: Included in targeted promotional ads driving potential candidates to your article and landing page, magnifying your reach.
3. Exclusive Landing Page: For one week, feature your company on a special landing page alongside other esteemed employers. Enhance your listing with videos, a rich corporate narrative, and direct links to your open positions.
4. Interactive Content: Engage job seekers with a Q&A featured in your article, providing a dive into your company's unique employment experience.
