Iowa is home to a number of outstanding students who are thriving in the arts. In 2025, The Gazette is proud to once again host a series to honor the achievements of the talented arts community in Eastern Iowa.

Excellence in the Arts includes outreach to area high schools, asking for nominations in the categories of visual, digital, performing arts, and spoken and written word. Selection of outstanding achievement leads to a spotlight series of winners in a special section along with an awards ceremony to celebrate while showcasing various local artists.
